

COCONUT BEACH VOLLEYBALL SIX PERSON CO-ED AND QUAD RULES

A. UNIFORMS & EQUIPMENT

1. No uniforms are required and all equipment necessary to play is provided at Coconut Beach.

B. VOLLEYBALL ETIQUETTE

1. Players and their guests must practice courtesy and good sportsmanship while at the Coconut Beach Complex.
2. A player must call his or her own nets, tips, and touches.
3. Profanity is not tolerated. Referees distribute yellow cards on the 1st offense, followed by red cards for subsequent offenses.
4. A player may not obstruct the view (intentionally or unintentionally) of players receiving a serve.
 - a. At the request of the player or the referee, an obstructing player must move to grant a clear view.
5. Referee calls are final.
 - a. If a discrepancy occurs regarding a referee's call, captains MUST first approach the ref stand once the play has ended to discuss the call. If there is still no resolution, captains may then choose to approach Coconut Beach's Volleyball Director with questions/concerns.
 - b. Neither captains nor players may argue a judgment call, but instead may ask their referee for clarification.
 - c. Captains and/or players who chose to argue calls openly on the court will be carded at the referee's discretion.

C. ELIGIBILITY

1. Players are allowed to play on multiple teams per night, but may only qualify with 1 team for playoffs.
 - a. Players are allowed to sub on the same net OR higher level net. For example, a player from net (4) can sub for a team on net (1, 2, 3, or 4), BUT a player from net (1, 2, or 3) CANNOT sub for a team on net (4). REMINDER: Players may only qualify with one team for playoffs.
2. A player must participate in 3 full matches with the same team to be eligible to play on that team in the playoffs and/or receive prizes.
3. Up to 10 players are allowed to participate and be on a team's roster (but a maximum of (8) prizes per team of 6s & (5) prizes for quads are given at the end of leagues)
4. High school players may play in the fall league.
5. Collegiate players may play during the summer league only (NCAA rule).
6. Number of players per team:
 - 6 players: minimum 2 women
 - 5 players: minimum 2 women
(Below also applies to Co-ed Quads Leagues)
 - 4 players: minimum 1 woman
 - 3 players: minimum 1 woman
 - 2 players: minimum 1 woman

D. PLAYERS & POSITIONS (6 Person)

1. A team consisting of 6 players: 3 front-row players and 3 back-row players.
2. A team consisting of 5 players: 3 front-row and 2 back-row players.
3. A team consisting of 4 players: 3 front-row and 1 back-row player (Server is the back-row player)
4. A team consisting of 3 players: All three players are considered front-row
5. Two women must be on the court for a 5 or 6 person team. A minimum of 1 woman must be on the court or a 4 person team.
 - a. Teams may sub players into a game as additional team members arrive.

E. PLAYERS & POSITIONS (QUADS)

1. Coed quads teams must have at least 1 girl on the court at all times
2. You do not have to rotate
3. All 4 players are considered front-row
4. You are not allowed to open hand while attacking the ball

F. PLAYING THE GAME

1. A coin toss will determine a team captain's choice of serve, receive, or court side for 1st and 3rd game. The loser of the coin toss will have the same choices for the 2nd game only.
2. During the 1st and 2nd games, all scoring is rally to 25. Third game, rally to 15.
3. At the time a ball is contacted during service, all players must be in correct serving order and within the boundaries of the court
 - a. A non-serving player's foot may touch the line but may not touch outside the line.
4. After service, players may exchange positions.
5. Teams change courtsides every 10 points during games to 25 and every 5 points in games to 15.
6. A ball:
 - a. Is considered in-bounds if it touches the line.
 - b. Is considered out-of-bounds if it lands completely outside the court lines or touches any object outside the court (net posts, ref stands, trees, fencing, etc.). Net cables and the wooden dowels are part of the court and are considered in bounds.
 - c. May be played with any part of the body.
 - d. May be hit simultaneously by two teammates, counting as one contact. Either player may make the next contact.
 - e. May be double hit on blocks and attacks only, as long as the attacking player contacts the ball with one hand above their head.
 - f. Does not have to be contacted by a woman.
7. A side out occurs when a team that served a ball fails to earn a point before the ball is dead, causing a ball possession turnover to the other team for service.
8. Common play violations include: lifting, double touching, foot faults, out of bounds, and net.
9. The referee will determine when a ball is dead and/or a play has ended.
10. If a violation occurs after the ball is dead, but during the normal course or continuation of the play, the referee will determine the fault.
11. Cards are given at the referee's discretion when players violate Coconut Beach rules.

F. SERVING

1. A serve occurs when a player serves a ball into play by tossing then contacting the ball with their hand or arm, using either overhand or underhand techniques.
2. A serving player may serve a ball from any point behind the backline and within the corners of sidelines.
3. The serving player may neither step on or under the backline or touch the court until the ball is contacted.
 - a. The serving player may not move the backlines during service, thereby reducing the size of the court. However, the server may break the imaginary plane of the end lines and or sideline if contact with the ball is made while the player is in the air.
 - b. The serving player must wait for the referee's signal and whistle before serving. Only one warning is given before the referee calls a side out.
 - c. After the referee's signal for service, the serving player has 8 seconds to put the ball into play.
 - d. The server is given 2 tosses each serve (After the first toss a player may either let the ball drop to the ground or catch the ball. The referee will then whistle for the player to serve again, at that point the server must get the ball in play.)
 - e. Player's on the receiving team may not block or attack a serve.

- f. All points received during a service out-of-turn are kept. Lineup should then be reestablished and a side out called.
- g. Each team is responsible for service order, as is the referee.
- h. A serve may not be received with open hands.
- i. A serve may not be blocked or attacked upon receiving.
- j. A ball may contact the net and go over during a serve.

G. ATTACKING

1. A spike/attack is an over-handed contact with a ball (sometimes while jumping), and usually the third contact a team makes before attempting to score a kill.
2. Players are not allowed to spike/attack or dink a ball when it is completely on the opposite side of the net.
3. A spike/attack must be clearly contacted; the player may not palm, throw, or double the ball.
4. Power dinks are not allowed.
5. Back-row players may spike or block a ball in the front row (in front of the 3 meter line) ONLY if their attacking hand remains below the height of the net when contacting the ball, UNLESS that player's last contact with the ground was behind the 3 meter line.
6. A back-row setter may neither set nor hit the ball over if the entire ball is above the net when contacted.
 - a. The back-row setter may set a ball above the net as long as the set does not entirely cross the net.

H. BLOCKING

1. A block is the attempt by a player(s) to interrupt the ball before, as, or just after it crosses the net.
2. A player is determined to be blocking when he or she is positioned within an arm's distance of the net with hand(s) above their head.
3. A blocker may block a ball that has penetrated the vertical plane of the net.
4. A blocker may block a ball on the opponent's side of the court only when:
 - a. The attacking team has made its final contact.
 - b. Anytime the attacking player has, in the referee's opinion, directed the ball into the blocker's court.
 - c. Any time the attacking team has made an unsuccessful attempt to attack the ball (i.e. a swing and miss).
5. A ball may be directed by the blocker, but may not come to rest on or be carried by the blocker.
6. When a ball is blocked back into the attacking player, the attacker is not subsequently considered a blocker, and may contact the ball only once.
7. Any sustained simultaneous contact of the ball by opposing players over the net is permissible.

I. NET

1. All net heights are set at "men's" height 8'
2. A player may cross under the net as long as interference with the play does not occur.
3. An opposing player may not interfere, or attempt to interfere, with a player trying to play a ball under the net.
4. A player may not place his or her hand(s) or body in front of the net with intent to prevent the ball from rebounding out of the net on the opposing team's side of the court.
5. Hair and clothing are not considered net violations, provided the referee is able to determine that the player's body did not come in contact as well.
6. The Coconut Beach Complex Director will determine playing areas.
7. Players may never intentionally grab, shake, or hang on court nets. If the referee determines a player intentionally did so, a red card will immediately be issued to that player.

J. REPLAYS

1. A replay may occur when:
 - a. An object enters the court and there is interference with play.
 - b. A warning is issued for serving before the referee's signal (only one warning).
 - c. A player is injured while the ball is in play.
 - d. An inadvertent whistle occur

K. SUBSTITUTES

1. A substitute may enter the game any time the ball is dead, with permission from the referee.
2. A substitute MUST check in with the referee prior to entering the game.
3. UPPER DIVISION: When a player re-enters during a game, he or she must re-enter for the same player/in the same position, which they were replaced. LOWER DIVISIONS: Any player may sub in for any other player at any spot on the court.
4. A team has unlimited substitutions per game.

L. TIME PERIOD, SCORES, & TIE GAMES

1. A game consists of 25 rally points.
 - a. The 3rd game is rally-scoring to 15
2. A match consists of the best 2 of 3 games.
3. A team must win by 2 points, with no point cap during any game.
4. There is no time limit per game or match.
5. Each team is allotted (2) 60-second timeouts and (2) 20-second timeouts per game.
6. No more than (2) timeouts may be used consecutively, regardless of type.
7. Teams may take 60-second side changes on score multiples 20 (games to 25) and 10 (games to 15).

M. CARDS

1. Any player may be issued a card(s) at the referee's discretion for profanity, pulling on nets, kicking or throwing balls, harassing opposing team members, arguing with referees, or any poor-sportsmanship behavior deemed inappropriate at Coconut Beach by a referee.
2. A yellow card is issued to a player as a one-time warning to refrain from a certain violation.
3. A red card is issued to a player after verbal warning has not ceased a player from violating Coconut Beach Volleyball Complex rules. A red card may be issued on any major violation.
 - a. A referee may dismiss/disqualify a player from a game after one or more red cards are given to that player for any single or multiple violation(s). Contact league director for any additional action.

N. FORFEITURE

1. Any team not ready to begin play at the scheduled time will forfeit one point per minute.
 - a. The first game will end after 10 minutes.
 - b. The second game will end after another 10 minutes, and match called.
2. Forfeited games will be scored 25-0.
3. Timeouts may not be used unless a legal team, one man and one woman or two women are on the court.
